“An attitude of gratitude is priceless” say authors Katherine Scherer and Eileen Bodoh. Following their mission to “touch lives with the spirit of gratitude,” Scherer and Bodoh have coupled with The I AM Foundation to gift books around the world. “Simple and profound, gratitude can and does shift life experiences.” Women prisoners are using Gratitude Works as a daily devotional in their recovery work. Comments received are: “...your book has opened my eyes to the beauty that’s in our world instead of all the ugliness I’ve seen.” “It helps me open my heart to love others and to love myself.” “I would like to say thank you and how much you’ve made a difference touching our lives, our heart and feelings, our thoughts.”

“... I think you’ve done a wonderful job capturing the essence of the power of gratitude.”

— Debbie Ford, Institute for Integrative Coaching and Author of The Dark Side of the Light Chasers

“Here is an elegantly graceful gift of inspiration for the heart and mind. Take liberal doses and feel better instantly!”

— Alan Cohen,
Author of A Deep Breath of Life

“The authors have found expressions for reflection that soon inspire in the reader a positive outlook with new healthier attitudes and a silent empowerment for each day.”

— Richard R. Blake, Reviewer
San Leandro, CA

A collection of 365 short stanzas explores what we have to be grateful for in our lives. Each day focuses on one main thought. The book can be read from beginning to end or opened at any page.
